Members of the Public: Amylynn Baker, Dennis Graham, Wayne Morris

Minutes of November 11, 2014 Motion to approve made by Wendy and seconded by Kathleen Approved

Discussion from the Public was along the same lines as at the previous meeting.

Keep it simple, regarding the Farm House Lease it or sell with convenience, a bed and Breakfast.

Outside: Nature walks, cross country skiing etc.

Betty Dunn, chair discussed the following items:

Look into how to apply to have the Farm House put on the State and National Historic Register. Lisa had some information. We will ask the Historic Committee for input as they have done this in the past for Searles School and Chapel.

Peter had sent a web site regarding "Historic New England" and the preservation of wallpaper. The committee will ask if they would like to come and review the wallpaper.

An email was send to the committee regarding use of the farm. Betty will invite them to come to a future meeting.

The committee discussed how to find people such as realtors who deal with historic buildings.

Kathleen will draft a letter to the abusers to see if they have any input.

Occupant agreement: Betty will contact the occupant regarding utilities costs.

Motion to adjourn made by Lisa and seconded by Kathleen approved.
